Executive Chef Thomas McKeown brings an uncommonly authentic perspective to his culinary approach at Terrace of The Ellis Hotel. The restaurant offers a modern polish to heirloom recipes made with traditional, locally grown ingredients. Through its seasonal, farm-to-table menus, Terrace strives to raise awareness for a more sustainable food culture while working to reestablish a vibrant sense of community through food.

As a 1913 Atlanta landmark, formerly the site of the historic Winecoff Hotel, The Ellis Hotel is a member of the National Registry of Historic Places. Blending a legendary past with the plush comforts of tomorrow, The Ellis Hotel features 127 guest rooms, including 12 junior suites and an executive suite, all adorned with a palette of Georgia-inspired earth tones and sleek designs characteristic of boutique style yet comfy and functional.

All rooms of The Ellis Hotel include 32" LCD flat screens, plush king size beds with ostrich leather headboards and iPod docking stations and offer a personal honor bar stocked with a variety of treats ranging from Fairywood Thicket, locally-made preserves to KamaSutra Body Paint to Endangered Species Chocolates.

Awarded with the Silver level by the Green Seal Environmental Standard for Lodging Properties, The Ellis Hotel is one of only two hotel properties in the state of Georgia to earn this distinguished declaration of environmental awareness. Ranked in the top 13 Excellent Business Hotels Around the World by Better Business Travel and rated number one hotel in Atlanta by Priceline.com guests and as a top-five rated TripAdvisor property for more than a year.
